

SNETP Membership fees 2020 & 2021

Membership annual fees for 2020 & 2021 to be approved by the 9th SNETP General Assembly

Full members

1. Industry	Fee 7000 EUR (non-SME)
2. R&amp;D organisation	Fee 2500 EUR
3. SME	Fee 500 EUR
4. Academia	Fee 1000 EUR

The General Assembly delegates the right to the SNETP Governing Board to reduce or cancel the amount of the membership fee for members providing sufficient and relevant arguments on their incapability to temporarily pay the full amount of the annual membership fee.

Associate member

Associate members refer to:

- Any legal entity acting directly or indirectly in the sector of nuclear fission energy R&D&I which has not its seat or main administration in a Member State of the European Union, a candidate country of the European Union or a country associated to a Framework Programme of the European Union for research, technological development activities,
- Groupings of several independent legal entities / NGOs
- Supranational and international organisations.

1. Industry	Fee 3000 EUR (non-SME)
2. R&amp;D organisation	Fee 2500 EUR
3. SME	Fee 500 EUR
4. Academia	Fee 1000 EUR
5. NGOs, International organisations	Fee 0 EUR

Permanent observers no fee

Permanent Observers are public and private entities and individuals acting directly or indirectly in the field of nuclear fission energy R&D&I and with strong interest to follow closely the activities of the Association. Permanent observers include:

1. Public authorities:
  - a. Ministry,
  - b. National agency,
  - c. European body
2. Others:
  - a. Standardization body,
  - b. Other private entity,
  - c. Other public entity,
  - d. Individuals.